

DEAR PATRIZIA,

Grazia per il letto ma anche per l'introduzione
a VIA FARINI. It seems to me to be a place that is needed and that is ^{used}. Quasi-impossibile di trovare in il nostro mondo d'arte!

It's a model of rare quality.

If you ever find yourself in New York senza
letto, please call me at work or at home (212-995-9025)
(e mail Laura_Hopman@MOMA.org)

BEST,

LAURA HOPMAN

Dear Patrizia,

Maurizio has just e-mailed me the news that you have kindly offered me a place to stay in Milano when I am there starting June 5.

Thank you very much! It is a tremendous help. I will be arriving in Milan around 5:00 p.m. on June 5. I will be leaving Milan on the morning of June 9. Please do tell me if four days is too long to prevail upon your hospitality.

Maurizio did not give me many details about your accommodations, whether I will be staying with others, with you, or alone in a room in your organization. Anything is fine with me. If you could give me an address (in case I take a cab) and directions by metro from Stazione Centrale (I know the city somewhat) to wherever you are or to wherever the apartment is, I would appreciate it (Laura_Hoptman@moma.org). If there is anything you would like me to bring from New York (or from the MoMA bookstore) it would be my pleasure to do so.

Thanks again and I look forward to meeting you in Milan,
Laura H.
