

SOMA

Ciudad de México, September 23rd 2013

To Whom it may concern,

As director of SOMA, I hereby declare that a pluriannual collaboration is currently carried out in partnership with Viafarini Organization for Contemporary Art.

This collaboration has been regularly carried out also in 2013.

The collaboration between the two organizations aims at the mobility of one Italian and one Mexican artists or curator each year, to be guested in the respective premise.

Each organization guarantees to their guests:

- _ hospitality in the respective premises;
- _ curatorial assistance;
- _ professional facilitation in researches about local artistic and cultural scenario, i.e. facilitating the access to documentation resources;
- _ assistance in making studio visits with art professionals and communication;

Apart from these services the two organizations do not provide any additional bursary or economic support to the selected guest, but help them in grant seeking, by providing letter of invitation, upon request.
