

~~possibile~~
~~montare tutto~~
~~sabato 9 marzo?~~

THE COASTER PROJECT, DESTINATION: THE WORLD

Between March 9 and May 19, 2002, 99+ artists will transcend geographic, political and cultural boundaries to stage 99+ trans-global exhibitions around the globe. Afterwards all 10,000+ works will be given away in the guise of "coasters" at bars, cafes and restaurants.

Be There! — ASSOCIAZIONE VIAFARINI - VIAFARINI 35

For more information contact:

llc ecc... ~~26~~ MARZO 2002
The Coaster Project, Destination: The World at
www.transculturalexchange.com/coasterproject
617.464.4086, sherman@transculturalexchange.com
images available on the website and upon request

↑ 12 Mercoledì

TransCultural Exchange's "The Coaster Project, Destination: The World" is made possible with generous support from Vista Higher Learning, the LEF Foundation and in-kind support from the Fuller Museum of Art, Brockton, Massachusetts; Boston College's Center for Media and Instructional Technology, and the Artists Foundation, Boston, Massachusetts.

Cara Pat + Momea

ho lasciato uno scatolone con
dentro tutto il materiale —

Ci sono anche dei poster e
un catalogo in CD Rom —

Secondo questo nel riquadro potrebbe essere l'invito (anche in inglese)

ho parlato con Gabi

THE COASTER PROJECT, DESTINATION: THE WORLD

Tra il 9 marzo e il 19 maggio 2002 99 artisti varcheranno i confini geografici, politici e culturali, realizzando 99 mostre trans-globali in diversi luoghi nel mondo. In seguito le 10.000 opere esposte saranno distribuite come sottobicchieri in bar, caffè e ristoranti.

Non mancare!
martedì 12 marzo 2002 dalle ore 18
VIA FARINI
Via C. Farini 35
20159 Milano

Per ulteriori informazioni contattare
The Coaster Project, Destination: The World
www.transculturalexchange.com/coasterproject
+1-617-4644086, sherman@transculturalexchange.com

Immagini disponibili sul sito su richiesta.

Il progetto "The Coaster Project, Destination: The World", promosso da Transcultural Exchange, è stato reso possibile dal generoso contributo di Vista Higher Learning, la LEF Foundation e il sostegno di Fuller Museum of Art, Brockton, Massachusetts; Boston College's Center for Media and Instructional Technology, e Artists Foundation, Boston, Massachusetts.

THE COASTER PROJECT, DESTINATION: THE WORLD

Tra il 9 marzo e il 19 maggio 2002, 99 artisti varcheranno i confini geografici, politici e culturali, installando 99 mostre trans-globali in diversi luoghi nel mondo. In seguito le 10.000 opere saranno distribuite come sottobicchieri in bar, caffè e ristoranti.

Non mancate!
martedì 12 marzo 2002 dalle ore 18
VIA FARINI
Via C. Farini 35
20159 Milano

Per ulteriori informazioni contattare:
The Coaster Project, Destination: The World
www.transculturalexchange.com/coasterproject
+1-617-4644086, sherman@transculturalexchange.com
Immagini disponibili sul sito su richiesta.

Il progetto "The Coaster Project, Destination: The World", promosso da Transcultural Exchange, è stato reso possibile dal generoso contributo di Vista Higher Learning, la LEF Foundation e il sostegno di Fuller Museum of Art, Brockton, Massachusetts; Boston College's Center for Media and Instructional Technology, e Artists Foundation, Boston, Massachusetts.

THE COASTER PROJECT, DESTINATION: THE WORLD

Tra il 9 marzo e il 19 maggio 2002, 99 artisti varcheranno i confini geografici, politici e culturali, installando 99 mostre trans-globali in diversi luoghi nel mondo. In seguito le 10.000 opere saranno distribuite come sottobicchieri in bar, caffè e ristoranti.

Non mancate!
martedì 12 marzo 2002 dalle ore 18
VIA FARINI
Via C. Farini 35
20159 Milano

Per ulteriori informazioni contattare:
The Coaster Project, Destination: The World
www.transculturalexchange.com/coasterproject
+1-617-4644086, sherman@transculturalexchange.com
Immagini disponibili sul sito su richiesta.

Il progetto "The Coaster Project, Destination: The World", promosso da Transcultural Exchange, è stato reso possibile dal generoso contributo di Vista Higher Learning, la LEF Foundation e il sostegno di Fuller Museum of Art, Brockton, Massachusetts; Boston College's Center for Media and Instructional Technology, e Artists Foundation, Boston, Massachusetts.

THE COASTER PROJECT, DESTINATION: THE WORLD

Tra il 9 marzo e il 19 maggio 2002, 99 artisti varcheranno i confini geografici, politici e culturali, installando 99 mostre trans-globali in diversi luoghi nel mondo. In seguito le 10.000 opere saranno distribuite come sottobicchieri in bar, caffè e ristoranti.

Non mancate!
martedì 12 marzo 2002 dalle ore 18
VIA FARINI
Via C. Farini 35
20159 Milano

Per ulteriori informazioni contattare:
The Coaster Project, Destination: The World
www.transculturalexchange.com/coasterproject
+1-617-4644086, sherman@transculturalexchange.com
Immagini disponibili sul sito su richiesta.

Il progetto "The Coaster Project, Destination: The World", promosso da Transcultural Exchange, è stato reso possibile dal generoso contributo di Vista Higher Learning, la LEF Foundation e il sostegno di Fuller Museum of Art, Brockton, Massachusetts; Boston College's Center for Media and Instructional Technology, e Artists Foundation, Boston, Massachusetts.

THE COASTER PROJECT, DESTINATION: THE WORLD

Tra il 9 marzo e il 19 maggio 2002, 99 artisti varcheranno i confini geografici, politici e culturali, installando 99 mostre trans-globali in diversi luoghi nel mondo. In seguito le 10.000 opere saranno distribuite come sottobicchieri in bar, caffè e ristoranti.

Non mancate!
martedì 12 marzo 2002 dalle ore 18
VIA FARINI
Via C. Farini 35
20159 Milano

Per ulteriori informazioni contattare:
The Coaster Project, Destination: The World
www.transculturalexchange.com/coasterproject
+1-617-4644086, sherman@transculturalexchange.com
Immagini disponibili sul sito su richiesta.

Il progetto "The Coaster Project, Destination: The World", promosso da Transcultural Exchange, è stato reso possibile dal generoso contributo di Vista Higher Learning, la LEF Foundation e il sostegno di Fuller Museum of Art, Brockton, Massachusetts; Boston College's Center for Media and Instructional Technology, e Artists Foundation, Boston, Massachusetts.

THE COASTER PROJECT, DESTINATION: THE WORLD

Tra il 9 marzo e il 19 maggio 2002, 99 artisti varcheranno i confini geografici, politici e culturali, installando 99 mostre trans-globali in diversi luoghi nel mondo. In seguito le 10.000 opere saranno distribuite come sottobicchieri in bar, caffè e ristoranti.

Non mancate!
martedì 12 marzo 2002 dalle ore 18
VIA FARINI
Via C. Farini 35
20159 Milano

Per ulteriori informazioni contattare:
The Coaster Project, Destination: The World
www.transculturalexchange.com/coasterproject
+1-617-4644086, sherman@transculturalexchange.com
Immagini disponibili sul sito su richiesta.

Il progetto "The Coaster Project, Destination: The World", promosso da Transcultural Exchange, è stato reso possibile dal generoso contributo di Vista Higher Learning, la LEF Foundation e il sostegno di Fuller Museum of Art, Brockton, Massachusetts; Boston College's Center for Media and Instructional Technology, e Artists Foundation, Boston, Massachusetts.

THE COASTER PROJECT, DESTINATION: THE WORLD

Tra il 9 marzo e il 19 maggio 2002, 99 artisti varcheranno i confini geografici, politici e culturali, installando 99 mostre trans-globali in diversi luoghi nel mondo. In seguito le 10.000 opere saranno distribuite come sottobicchieri in bar, caffè e ristoranti.

Non mancate!
martedì 12 marzo 2002 dalle ore 18
VIA FARINI
Via C. Farini 35
20159 Milano

Per ulteriori informazioni contattare:
The Coaster Project, Destination: The World
www.transculturalexchange.com/coasterproject
+1-617-4644086, sherman@transculturalexchange.com
Immagini disponibili sul sito su richiesta.

Il progetto "The Coaster Project, Destination: The World", promosso da Transcultural Exchange, è stato reso possibile dal generoso contributo di Vista Higher Learning, la LEF Foundation e il sostegno di Fuller Museum of Art, Brockton, Massachusetts; Boston College's Center for Media and Instructional Technology, e Artists Foundation, Boston, Massachusetts.

THE COASTER PROJECT, DESTINATION: THE WORLD
Between March 9 and May 19, 2002, 99 artists will transcend geographic, political and cultural boundaries to stage 99+ trans-global exhibitions around the globe. Afterwards all 10,000+ works will be given away in the guise of "coasters" at bars, cafes and restaurants.

Be There!
Tuesday March 12, 2002, 6 p.m.
VIAFARINI
Via C. Farini 35
20159 Milano

For more information contact:
The Coaster Project, Destination: The World at
www.transculturalexchange.com/coasterproject
617.464.4086, sherman@transculturalexchange.com
images available from the website and upon request

TransCultural Exchange's "The Coaster Project, Destination: The World" is made possible with generous support from Vista Higher Learning, the LEF Foundation and in-kind support from the Fuller Museum of Art, Brockton, Massachusetts; Boston College's Center for Media and Instructional Technology, and the Artists Foundation, Boston, Massachusetts.

THE COASTER PROJECT, DESTINATION: THE WORLD
Between March 9 and May 19, 2002, 99 artists will transcend geographic, political and cultural boundaries to stage 99+ trans-global exhibitions around the globe. Afterwards all 10,000+ works will be given away in the guise of "coasters" at bars, cafes and restaurants.

Be There!
Tuesday March 12, 2002, 6 p.m.
VIAFARINI
Via C. Farini 35
20159 Milano

For more information contact:
The Coaster Project, Destination: The World at
www.transculturalexchange.com/coasterproject
617.464.4086, sherman@transculturalexchange.com
images available from the website and upon request

TransCultural Exchange's "The Coaster Project, Destination: The World" is made possible with generous support from Vista Higher Learning, the LEF Foundation and in-kind support from the Fuller Museum of Art, Brockton, Massachusetts; Boston College's Center for Media and Instructional Technology, and the Artists Foundation, Boston, Massachusetts.

THE COASTER PROJECT, DESTINATION: THE WORLD
Between March 9 and May 19, 2002, 99 artists will transcend geographic, political and cultural boundaries to stage 99+ trans-global exhibitions around the globe. Afterwards all 10,000+ works will be given away in the guise of "coasters" at bars, cafes and restaurants.

Be There!
Tuesday March 12, 2002, 6 p.m.
VIAFARINI
Via C. Farini 35
20159 Milano

For more information contact:
The Coaster Project, Destination: The World at
www.transculturalexchange.com/coasterproject
617.464.4086, sherman@transculturalexchange.com
images available from the website and upon request

TransCultural Exchange's "The Coaster Project, Destination: The World" is made possible with generous support from Vista Higher Learning, the LEF Foundation and in-kind support from the Fuller Museum of Art, Brockton, Massachusetts; Boston College's Center for Media and Instructional Technology, and the Artists Foundation, Boston, Massachusetts.

THE COASTER PROJECT, DESTINATION: THE WORLD
Between March 9 and May 19, 2002, 99 artists will transcend geographic, political and cultural boundaries to stage 99+ trans-global exhibitions around the globe. Afterwards all 10,000+ works will be given away in the guise of "coasters" at bars, cafes and restaurants.

Be There!
Tuesday March 12, 2002, 6 p.m.
VIAFARINI
Via C. Farini 35
20159 Milano

For more information contact:
The Coaster Project, Destination: The World at
www.transculturalexchange.com/coasterproject
617.464.4086, sherman@transculturalexchange.com
images available from the website and upon request

TransCultural Exchange's "The Coaster Project, Destination: The World" is made possible with generous support from Vista Higher Learning, the LEF Foundation and in-kind support from the Fuller Museum of Art, Brockton, Massachusetts; Boston College's Center for Media and Instructional Technology, and the Artists Foundation, Boston, Massachusetts.

THE COASTER PROJECT, DESTINATION: THE WORLD
Between March 9 and May 19, 2002, 99 artists will transcend geographic, political and cultural boundaries to stage 99+ trans-global exhibitions around the globe. Afterwards all 10,000+ works will be given away in the guise of "coasters" at bars, cafes and restaurants.

Be There!
Tuesday March 12, 2002, 6 p.m.
VIAFARINI
Via C. Farini 35
20159 Milano

For more information contact:
The Coaster Project, Destination: The World at
www.transculturalexchange.com/coasterproject
617.464.4086, sherman@transculturalexchange.com
images available from the website and upon request

TransCultural Exchange's "The Coaster Project, Destination: The World" is made possible with generous support from Vista Higher Learning, the LEF Foundation and in-kind support from the Fuller Museum of Art, Brockton, Massachusetts; Boston College's Center for Media and Instructional Technology, and the Artists Foundation, Boston, Massachusetts.

THE COASTER PROJECT, DESTINATION: THE WORLD
Between March 9 and May 19, 2002, 99 artists will transcend geographic, political and cultural boundaries to stage 99+ trans-global exhibitions around the globe. Afterwards all 10,000+ works will be given away in the guise of "coasters" at bars, cafes and restaurants.

Be There!
Tuesday March 12, 2002, 6 p.m.
VIAFARINI
Via C. Farini 35
20159 Milano

For more information contact:
The Coaster Project, Destination: The World at
www.transculturalexchange.com/coasterproject
617.464.4086, sherman@transculturalexchange.com
images available from the website and upon request

TransCultural Exchange's "The Coaster Project, Destination: The World" is made possible with generous support from Vista Higher Learning, the LEF Foundation and in-kind support from the Fuller Museum of Art, Brockton, Massachusetts; Boston College's Center for Media and Instructional Technology, and the Artists Foundation, Boston, Massachusetts.