

Milan, March 2nd, 2018

To whom it may concern,

On behalf of Viafarini Organization for Contemporary Art, I hereby declare that our curatorial board has received the project "World Class Citizen" submitted by artist Peter Kaergaard Andersen for a three-month residency period to be spent in Milan in our residency structure VIR Viafarini-in-residence, between October until December 2018.

We want you to know that we consider Andersen's project interesting and deserving also considering its relevancy to the subject matter of our project ENGAGE Public School for Social Engagement in Artistic Research a long-term research about socially engaged practices with a special regard on innovative approach to Italian and European current social and political scenario.

In case you decide to award Mr. Peter Kaergaard Andersen with your prestigious grant and/or sponsorship we would be pleased to give her the opportunity to accomplish his project in Milan providing him with the right to live and work for three months in our structure, having the opportunity to exhibit his project and research findings in our Milanese space, as well as to receive studio visits from critics, curators and art professionals.

Our residency program VIR Viafarini-in-residence counts an extensive network of international collaboration with leading European and international art centers, and Viafarini already had the pleasure to present to our audience Danish artists thanks to Danish institutional support in the past: Hannah Heilmann (2011) and Augusta Atla (2012-2013).

Therefore we kindly ask you to consider Peter Kaergaard Andersen as a valuable beneficiary of your grant,

In faith,
Patrizia Brusarosco
Director of Viafarini

